SAN JOSE AFTER SCHOOL Starbird Area

San José After School is a partnership by the City of San José, with school districts, community-based organizations, teachers and parents to provide safe, fun and enriching activities for youth after school.

Afterschool programs promote healthy youth development and student learning. This includes homework centers and tutoring, recreation, arts, and enrichment activities, and technology centers. Youth will enjoy safe, fun, and enriching activities at sites located throughout San José.

There are wonderful afterschool programs in your area. For more information about schools, libraries, and centers offering afterschool programs, please contact 408-277-4960.

Types of Programs

Level 1: Homework Assistance. Level one sites offer after school homework help at many locations in San José.

Level 2: Safe and Accessible After School Programs. Level two sites offer integrated recreation and literacy and math enrichment programs.

Level 3: Integrated and Comprehensive approach After School Programs. Level three sites integrate literacy, leadership, education, nutrition, cultural arts and recreation activities.

Please contact your Community Center for more information on program site levels.

Types of Programs: Programs for youth ages 12 to 17, support services for parents and other adults. The facility includes a gymnasium, multi-purpose room, classroom, counseling room, conference room, game room, boxing room and administrative offices.

General Type Programs:

Washington United Youth Center – a place for youth and their families to learn, grow, and have fun! This is a positive, safe place where teenagers come daily to play and learn. Parents and other adults participate in recreational and support services that enhance their quality of life and help strengthen their families.

In 1997, Catholic Charities, a non-profit social service agency, was selected by the local community and the City of San José to operate Washington United Youth Center. Their mission is to provide youth and their families with the support needed to be successful in school, employment and the community. Washington United Youth Center offers programming targeting youth ages 12 to 17 and support services for parents and other adults.

Available activities:

Sports, game room, structured programming for youth and parents, individual and family support, arts, dance, and artistic programs, cultural programming and events.

For further information about programs and events, contact Washington United Youth Center at 408- 938-6731.
